

17th May 2023

Compulsory English Exam Preparation – Friday 19th May

Dear families

As you know, the GCSE examinations are now under way and therefore we are putting everything into the preparation and support of our Year 11 students.

As such, we would like to inform you that Year 11 will need to attend compulsory English Literature preparation after the school day on Friday, 19th May. Students will stay in the academy and complete English exam preparation lessons until 3:50. This is because they will have no further time for teacher input before their exam due to other exams taking place next week.

This decision has been taken to ensure that Year 11 receive all possible support in advance of their English Literature exam on Wednesday 24th May.

Thank you for your continued support with our Year 11 students in readiness for their GCSE examinations.

Yours faithfully

James Dyke

Head of English

Dixons Trinity Chapeltown